Stone Harbor Night Playbook

The Tuesday night “we have never been here” exploration plan, with a possible Wednesday encore.

Why Stone Harbor first

Stone Harbor is the first-night target

You are staying far south in Avalon, around the 78th block at ICONA. Stone Harbor is close enough to make the first night feel like exploring without making it a haul.

Targets

96th Street area Default walkaround zone. Start here and let the night	The Reeds / Water Star Grille area Polished option for a nicer first impression.
Fred’s Tavern Casual fallback with Brian-friendly bar energy.	Spiaggetta Italian dinner candidate if that is the mood.

Rule

No mission creep

This is not a Cape May-level operation. Walk around, eat, drink, look around, then decide whether Stone Harbor gets another night.
