Stone Harbor Night Playbook

Tuesday is the first look. Wednesday night can be round two if Stone Harbor earns it.

First-night mission

■ Go see the town

You have never been to Avalon/Stone Harbor. Since ICONA is so far south, Stone Harbor is the natural first-night exploration. Walk the 96th Street area, check the vibe, and decide if it deserves a second night.

■ Polished option

The Reeds / Water Star Grille area for the nicer resort-night feel.

■ Casual option

Fred's Tavern if the night needs bar comfort more than fancy.

■ Dinner option

Spiaggetta if Italian feels right and availability works.

■ Walkaround

Use 96th Street for shops, strolling, and "leave Brian at a bar" potential.

If it hits, repeat it

If Stone Harbor feels right Tuesday, Wednesday night can be round two. If not, no loss - ICONA/Windrift is still waiting.
