

Atlantic City Neon Finale Playbook

Core Strategy

One-night finale. Park once. Walk, Jitney, or Uber after arrival. Do not make one night into a parking war.

The Atlantic City Jitney official site says it runs 24/7 service in Atlantic City; still use common sense and Uber when it is easier.

Thursday 7/9 - Avalon to AC

Morning	CAR Do not rush D out of the Avalon beach chapter. Coffee, checkout, clean handoff into AC mode.
Midday	CAR Drive to Atlantic City and park at the hotel/casino. Car keys go into timeout.
2:00-4:30 PM	WALK / JITNEY / UBER Boardwalk/casino orientation. Find the meet-back bar, scout the floor, and set a bailout point.
5:30-8:00 PM	WALK / UBER Dinner plus first AC energy. Choose based on where you are staying; no cross-town nonsense unless Uber makes it painless.
8:00 PM-late	WALK / JITNEY / UBER Casino chaos, organized. Slots, drinks, people watching, bail points, and no heroic logistics.

Friday 7/10 - Breakout

Morning	WALK / CAR Coffee, checkout, maybe one last boardwalk look. No final casino spiral unless everyone agrees.
Late morning	CAR One clean exit home. Snacks, music, no overstuffed side quests.
Afternoon	HOME Pool-bar recovery begins. Unload only what matters.

Win Condition

AC hard, park once, no parking rage. Break out Friday and land at the pool bar.
