

Avalon / ICONA Reset Playbook

Core Strategy

ICONA Avalon is the clear choice: D gets beach access, Brian and Amber get pool/bar/shade escape options, and the trip gets a classy reset between Cape May and Atlantic City.

Wednesday is D's real Avalon beach day. The rest of the plan protects that.

Tuesday 7/7 - Cape May to ICONA Avalon

Late morning	CAR Calm Cape May checkout. One last coffee or favorite Cape May goodbye only if it fits.
Midday	CAR Drive north to ICONA Avalon. Park, drop bags if the room is not ready, and shift into resort mode.
2:00-4:30 PM	WALK Beach/pool soft launch. D gets eyes on the beach. Brian and Amber make the honorable cameo and can then use pool/bar/shade survival.
5:30-8:30 PM	WALK / UBER Easy Avalon dinner. Keep it polished, relaxed, and close unless Uber makes something better painless.
Night	WALK Balcony, bar, short walk, or room landing. Save the chaos for AC.

Wednesday 7/8 - D's Beach Day

9:00-10:30 AM	WALK Beach setup: chairs, umbrella, book, water, sunscreen, and zero rushing.
10:30 AM-Noon	WALK Honorable beach cameo. Brian and Amber show up, sit a bit, be pleasant, and earn the points.
Noon-2:00 PM	WALK Lunch/pool reset. D can stay beach-side if she is loving it; nobody else has to fake being a beach person all day.
2:00-4:30 PM	WALK Beach round two or pool split. The day is won if D gets the beach she wanted.

5:30-8:30 PM	WALK / UBER Relaxed but nice Avalon dinner before the AC neon finale.
Night	WALK Quiet victory lap. Drink, walk, or room landing.

Win Condition

D gets her real beach day. Brian and Amber survive with grace. Everyone resets before AC.
