

Friday Pool-Bar Recovery Playbook

Core Strategy

This is still vacation. Home recovery is the final chapter, not an afterthought.

Nobody becomes a productivity hero on Friday afternoon.

Friday 7/10

Morning	AC CHECKOUT Coffee, checkout, maybe one last boardwalk look. Keep it clean.
Late morning	CAR Drive home. One clean exit. Snacks, music, no dumb side quests.
Afternoon	HOME Unload only what matters. Wet towels and emergency bags can wait.
Pool Bar	DO NOTHING AGGRESSIVELY Hydrate, eat something normal-ish, recap the trip, and let the weekend do its job.

Weekend Rule

The pool bar is the final chapter. Recovery mode stays activated unless there is a real reason to deactivate it.
